

Now you have an opportunity to train potential employees cost-free through WorkReadyMissouri

Governor Nixon has launched a new program to help businesses like yours train potential employees. Your business can post training orders through WorkReadyMissouri and select potential trainees referred by your local Career Center*.

Interested? Go to www.mo.gov or call 1-800-592-6020 or email WorkReadyMo@ded.mo.gov to find out more.

WorkReadyMissouri benefits:

- Participating businesses pay nothing—not even Workers' Compensation
- Pre-screened qualified trainees
- Trainees receive up to 6 weeks/144 hours of training (maximum of 24 hours per week) at your business
- Potential employees ready to hire who have benefitted from pre-employment training
- Ideal for companies of any size

www.mo.gov

WorkReadyMissouri is administered through a partnership between Missouri's Division of Workforce Development and the Division of Employment Security

Call 1-800-592-6020 or email WorkReadyMo@ded.mo.gov

*Participants in this program are Unemployment Insurance recipients.  Some occupations are excluded.